

English 1 Conversation

1 - Language of Description

Aim of the lesson

- To introduce language of description.
- To highlight the form and position of adjectives.
- To better understand the use of adjectives in describing something.
- To learn about some basic rules in using adjectives

- a. The bag has long handles and big pockets.
- b. I have a suitcase very old.
- c. She was carrying a big and black umbrella.
- d. I bought a leather new jacket.
- e. It was a too expensive coat, so I didn't buy it.
- f. He was wearing a three-pieces suit.
- g. This sweater feels softly and looks nicely.
- h. What is a smallest size you have?

a. The bag has longs handles and bigs pockets.

The bag has long handles and big pockets
(adjectives do not take plural forms)

b. I have a suitcase very old.

I have a very old suitcase.

(adjectives usually go in front of the noun)

c. She was carrying a big and black umbrella.

She was carrying a big black umbrella.

(two adjectives that are in front of the noun do not usually need to be joined with and)

d. I bought a leather new jacket.

I bought a new leather jacket.

(words that say what something is made of, like leather, or what it is used for, go nearer to the noun than words that describe the color, size, or age of the thing like new)

e. It was a too expensive coat, so I didn't buy it.

The coat was too expensive, so I didn't buy it.

(“too + adjective” phrases do not usually go before the noun.)

f. He was wearing a three-pieces suit.

He was wearing a three-piece suit.

(Adjectives made up of “number + noun” do not have a plural form, even when the number is plural.)

g. This sweater feels soft~~ly~~ and looks nice~~ly~~.

This sweater feels soft and looks nice.

(Verbs like feel, look, smell, etc, take adjectives not adverbs.)

h. What is a smallest size you have?

What is the smallest size you have?

(Superlative forms of adjectives usually take the.)

- a. The bag has long handles and big pockets.
- b. I have a very old suitcase.
- c. She was carrying a big black umbrella.
- d. I bought a new leather jacket.
- e. The coat was a too expensive, so I didn't buy it.
- f. He was wearing a three-piece suit.
- g. This sweater feels soft and looks nice.
- h. What is the smallest size you have?

Draw the object that is being read.

GUESS WHAT I SEE

How to play Guess what I see game:

- The person standing up front thinks of an object.
 - or picks an object in the room.
- Students will try and guess what the object is.
- Students can only ask yes/no questions.
 - Answers could be “yes”, “no”, “sometimes”, and “not relevant”.

UNIVERSITAS
KRISTEN
MARANATHA